

SWF CODE OF CONDUCT

Players

The Players must abide by the Laws of the Game, the Rules of Scottish Women's Football, the Affiliated Youth League's and the rules of any competition in which they participate.

Players;

- must accept the decisions of Managers, Coaches and Match Officials without questions or protestation
- must accept success, failure, victory and/or defeat with good grace and without excessive display of emotion
- shall by no means whatsoever unfairly criticise, disagree, belittle or discredit any player of any other Club
- shall not use foul, abusive or offensive language including racist, sexist or homophobic language, or gestures likely to insult or provoke others
- Must not make comment to the media or publish or cause to be published or broadcast any comment likely to bring their Club or the game of Association football disrepute
- must at all times promote favourably Women's and Girl's football
- must abide by any rules and regulations as determined by their individual Club

Any breach of any provision of these Code of Conducts by a Clubs, Player or Official or any of its servants or agents shall constitute a breach of the SWF Youth Rules and shall be dealt with under the procedures set out in the League Rules

Any breach of any provision of these Code of Conducts by a Clubs, Player or Official or any of its servants or agents shall constitute a breach of the SWF Youth Rules and shall be dealt with under the procedures set out in the League Rules