

At Scottish Women's Football, our vision is to realise the needs, wants, and unlimited ambitions of its girls and women; to empower our players regardless of their age, needs, or background.

Players also have an important role in ensuring that football is a safe and welcoming space for everyone.

As a player, I will:

- Treat everyone with respect and dignity, regardless of their gender, ethnic origin, cultural background, sexual orientation, religion, or political affiliation
- Always play the game fairly, and in the spirit of the game
- Positively promote the reputation of Women's Football
- Respect the decision of match officials
- Remember that I am a role model, on and off the pitch
- Speak to teammates, managers, and the opposition with respect
- Be gracious in victory and defeat
- Be mindful of how I use social media
- Be respectful in my language during games and training

I understand that if I do not follow these codes, I may:

- Be asked to apologise
- Receive a formal warning
- Be suspended from training
- Be suspended from games
- Be barred from participating in events related to Women's football
- Be asked to attend educational course
